

Is Global Health in Crisis?

In an era of global financial uncertainty, dwindling overseas development assistance and increasing inequalities in health, the critical issues of global health leadership and finance will be discussed and debated by acclaimed international health and development experts. Speakers from a wide range of global health institutions including UNSW, AusAID, NGOs, World Bank and WHO

Keynote speaker:

Stephen Lewis, AIDS-Free World and former UN Special Envoy for HIV/AIDS

Stephen Lewis is a well renowned global health advocate. His work with the United Nations spanned more than two decades. He was the UN Secretary-General's Special Envoy for HIV/AIDS in Africa 2001 – 2006 and Deputy Executive Director of UNICEF 1995-99. From 1984 through 1988, he was Canada's Ambassador to the United Nations. He is the board chair of the Stephen Lewis Foundation, dedicated to turning the tide of HIV/AIDS in Africa, and he is co-founder and co-director of AIDS-Free World.
